Confidentiality

This email and any attachments are intended only for the named recipients and may be confidential or legally privileged. If you received it in error, please tell the sender and delete it. Do not copy, forward or rely on it. Receipt by the wrong person does not waive confidentiality or privilege.

No contract by email

An email from ATSC does not form, vary or terminate a contract, accept an offer or waive a right unless it expressly says so and is sent by an authorised signatory of ATSC Global Limited, or the contract in question provides that email notice is sufficient. Quotations and proposals are subject to contract unless they state otherwise.

Personal data

ATSC processes personal data in emails, including names, contact details and message content, to correspond with you and run its business, as described in its Privacy Notice at atsc.global/legal/privacy. Please send personal data only where necessary, and do not send special category data or payment card details by email.

Security

ATSC scans, filters and may block inbound and outbound email to protect its systems and data, and keeps email records in line with its records management policy. Messages blocked as malicious may not reach the intended recipient. ATSC will never ask you to change bank details by email alone: always confirm any change of payment details by phone using a number you already hold.

Email can be intercepted or altered and may carry malware. ATSC takes reasonable precautions but cannot guarantee that an email is secure or free of viruses, and you should scan attachments before opening them.

Views and content

Views expressed by an individual that are not ATSC business communications are those of the individual. Content may have been drafted with the help of AI tools and is reviewed by the sender before it is sent.

Governing law

This notice is governed by the laws of Ireland. Nothing in it limits any liability that cannot be limited by law.
